味不可言 Savor Art

今個夏天，K11與致力推廣香港本土文化的藝術團體——文化葫蘆合作，舉辦「味不可言」展覽。七位本土藝術家歐陽應霽、陳柏昇、鄭志明、許方華、葉家偉、劉學成和蘇敏怡此次化身為藝術廚師，從酸、甜、苦、辣的角度展現飲食文化與生活的藝術，利用視覺感官刺激大眾味蕾，使有形的食物美學與無形的飲食哲學與文化擦出色香味俱全的火花。希望觀眾在欣賞展品時猶如經歷一次美食之旅，大快朵頤地品嚐由地道飲食文化帶來的視覺盛宴。

This summer, K11 collaborates with "Hulu Culture" to present a special showcase exhibition "Savor Art". Seven local artists, Craig Au Yeung, Chan Pak Sing, Stella So, Cheng Chi Ming Carl, Phoebe Hui, Ip Ka Wai Alexis and Lau Hok Shing Hanison, become art chefs in the exhibition. They make use of the four tastes - sour, sweet, bitter and spicy - to show local food culture and living art. The artists will try to stimulate our taste buds with visual senses and create unique association, giving sparkles to tangible food aesthetics and intangible food culture. Their unique works provide a revolutionary perspective for visitors to perceive the secrets of local food culture.

吐司藝術 Toast Art

K11邀請了紐西蘭全球唯一並被譽為「吐司藝術之畢加索」(Toast Art Picasso) 的莫里斯班奈特先生(Maurice Bennett) 親臨香港與香港參加者一同於K11購物藝術館內以吐司作畫紙、以火槍作畫筆，用6000塊吐司一同砌出全球最大的吐司馬賽克畫，務求打破健力士世界紀錄。

It is our pleasure to invite "Toast Art Picasso", Mr. Maurice Bennett from New Zealand to K11. Using toast as canvas and musketry as painting brush, Mr. Bennett and Hong Kong people created the world's largest toast art mosaic with 6,000 slices of toast, with an attempt to break a new Guinness World Record.
